3. Demonstrate outstanding leadership and service to the residence hall system as determined by the current NRHH Thunderbird Chapter executive board.

Section II: Member for Life

1. Once an individual has shown dedication and commitment to NRHH according to their chapter's standards, they will become an NRHH member for life.

Section III: Types of Membership

1. Candidate Membership:
  - a. The Candidate Member is a pre-membership status in which the student has shown interest through intent to become an NRHH member.

- b. Membership Intent:
    - i. Candidate members must submit a formal intent of pre-membership to the chapter.
    - ii. Chapters must confirm the status of pre-membership to candidates.
  - c. Student Requirement:
    - i. A Candidate Member seeking induction must be a student of the college or university with which the chapter is affiliated.
    - ii. "Student" shall be defined by the chapter's host institution.
    - iii. Students pursuing undergraduate, graduate, or professional degrees are all eligible for induction.
  - d. Academic Standards:
    - i. At the time of induction, the Inductee must be a student possessing at least a 2.5 GPA on a 4.0 scale, or its equivalency.
    - ii. In the event an institution does not operate on a 4.0 GPA scale, a representative from the affiliating institution will work with the current ADNRRH of the institution's region to determine a grade equivalent to the NACURH GPA standard.
  - e. Member Education:
    - i. NRHH chapters must educate candidate members on topics including but not limited to
      - 1. NRHH History
      - 2. OTMs
      - 3. Membership Qualifications
      - 4. Membership Selection Processes
  - f. Membership Selection:
    - i. The selection process is determined at the discretion of the chapter.
  - g. On-Campus Living Requirement:
    - i. The Candidate member must be living in institutionally owned or contracted housing and has lived in institutionally owned or contracted housing for at least one academic term, as defined by the affiliated institution, upon induction.
  - h. Positive Contribution:
    - i. The Candidate Member must have positively contributed to the residence hall system through engagement with the values of service and recognition.
  - i. Inductions:
    - i. Once a candidate member has met all NACURH and chapter requirements, they will be eligible for induction.
2. On-Campus Membership:
- a. On-campus members are also referred to as General Members
  - b. Defined as a member who has been inducted into the Chapter and is currently living in on-campus housing managed by SHCS at UBC.
  - c. The General Member must be a student of UBC.
  - d. General Members must meet all NACURH and Thunderbird chapter requirements for membership.
  - e. The General Member must maintain at least a 65% cumulative average.
  - f. Temporary leaves from on-campus housing such as, but not limited to, co-ops, internships, student exchange, or study abroad, will not affect the individual's active status of the NRHH.

- g. In the case of temporary leave, the NRHH member should notify the Chapter president in writing detailing the reason for and duration of the temporary leave.
  - h. To maintain Active Membership status, members must attend at least 70% of meetings per term. If a member does not meet this requirement, they must submit a written leave of absence to the President.
  - i. If attendance at meetings conflicts with a regularly scheduled event (i.e. class or work) that member can maintain active membership status through voting on campus OTM's every single month as well as contributing to NRHH programs in residence.
  - j. Maintenance of General Membership is at the discretion of the NRHH executive board.
  - k. General Members continue to make a positive contribution to the residence hall system through engagement with the values of service and recognition.
3. Off-campus Membership:
